

Agenda:

Warm-up letter to Penelope from Odysseus

Discussion questions of Books 21 and 23

Test of the Bow video clip

Wreck-it Ralph (finish) if time permits

There will be a timed writing on the Hero's Journey comparing Odysseus to Ralph!

Reminders: When we schedule the test on The Odyssey, I will also collect your annotated "books" for a point value towards the test!
To be scheduled — independent reading book project — in class.
either end of quarter OR start of next quarter

Homework: Complete Hero's Journey - both Odysseus AND ~~Ralph~~ Ralph!

Book 21

1) Penelope

2) prudent Penelope

3) "He put it to the bridge, drew the string and the notches, and shot the arrow right from there, sitting on the stool, aiming it straight, and he did not miss one handle tip of all of the axes. The arrow heavy with bronze went straight on out the end."

4) whoever shoots all the 12 axes w/ a bow and arrow

5. They are worried he will correctly string the bow and win her hand in marriage.

6. Zeus sends a sign that he good thunder-clap! Zeus is on board!

23 XXIII

1. Penelope, Odysseus, ~~Calypso~~, Aodes

2. Sound-minded Telemachos

3) "made his hair flow in curls upon his head like the hyacinth flower (...) He stepped from the bathtub in form like the immortal gods" Compares Odysseus's hair to a flower and Odysseus to the gods.

4.) because he hasn't been home for 20 years, and she didn't know where he was.