

Agenda:

Place your projects in the box!

Warm-up - DGP

Siren Song

Book 10-12 discussion

Figurative language worksheet

Homework:

Read and annotate Book 21; answer study guide questions

DGP

Siren Song

Grab a lit book and turn to page 938. Read the poem Siren Song and answer the following questions:

- 1) What does the Siren reveal about the song?
- 2) What does she reveal about herself?
- 3) The Siren describes the song as "fatal and valuable." In what sense is it valuable?
- 4) To whom might the Siren be speaking? Give reasons for your opinion.

Class notes block

leadership & loyalty

- Odysseus
- Charibdis
- Zeus
- Eurylochus
- Circe
- Chatais

Goal - reach home

resist temptation - Sirens foresight + planning

dark blue eyed Amphitrite

Earth-shaker

The sun (Apollo)

"I addressed my companions... listen to queenly Circe"

Obedience to gods (heroic trait)
humility

- Fair-braided Circe
- divine Charibdis
- destructive Charibdis
- Golden-throned Dawn

the Test of the Bow

Synopsis:

goal = go home

Book 12 - class notes

Os men were punished for having eaten the Sun god's cattle

dark blue-eyed Amphitrite

Circe

Deadly Charybdis

Odysseus

Earth-shaker Zeus

Scylla

Golden-throned Dawn

Charybdis

Sirens

leadership - motivates crew

Helios

self-control + humility (less prideful)

↓ siren song → pride / curiosity