Powder - discussion

Homework: Write one paragraph that describes EITHER the father or the son in the story Powder, and use three supporting quotes (using APE structure) to exemplify your assertion about your chosen character.

Powder:

What are the conflicts you identified in the story?
What is the turning point in the story?
Explore the POV in the story and discuss what it is, how it affects the story, and whether its contribution is effective.

What character traits does the father possess?

What about the son?
