

Agenda:

Journal

Intro to The Odyssey:

Homer's World

The Trojan War

The Epic Tradition

Begin (together) Book One of The Odyssey

Homework: Read and annotate Book 1

Journal:

Odysseus and his crew, as we will soon discover, faced many temptations on his journey home to his family...as a teenager, you also face temptations. Talk about the temptations you face, and how you face them. Have you given in to temptation? Have you stood strong against it? What were the situations and how did you handle yourself?

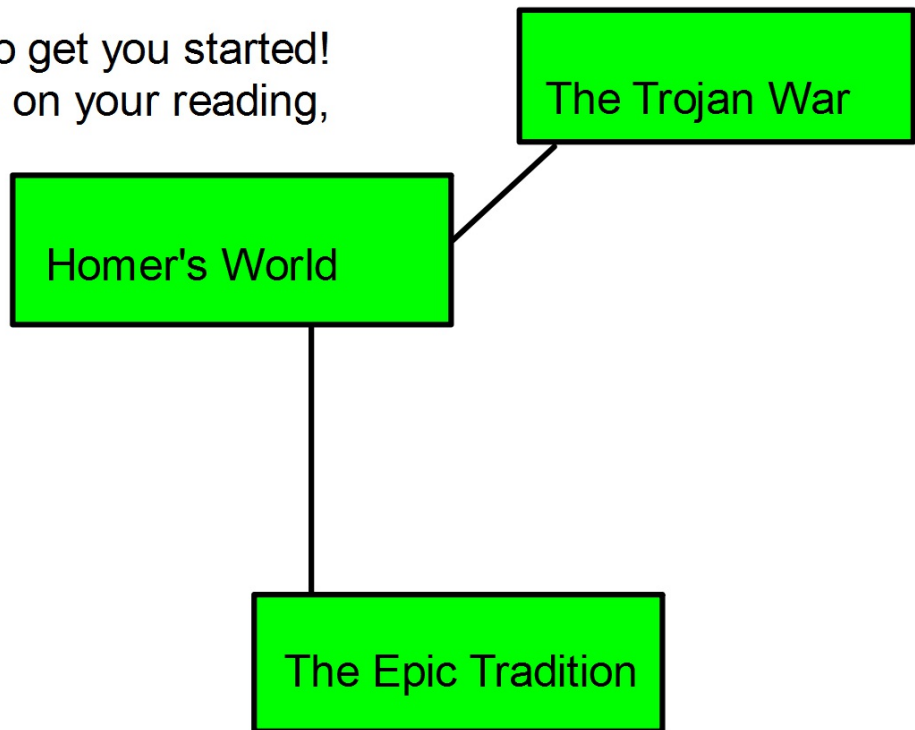

Classwork:

Due at the end of the time allotted!

Create a verbal and visual sketch of the introductory notes to The Odyssey.

pgs. 887-891

This is just an idea to get you started!
You are taking notes on your reading,
so make it effective for YOU!

Video - Odysseus and his ship

The Odyssey

As you read your "books" of this epic poem, make sure to annotate following these guidelines:

- recap and summarize events/main ideas of passages
- identify epithets (highlight)
- identify epic similes and explain them in your own words (highlight)