

Agenda:

Warm-up - DGP

The Fly discussion (45 min.)

~~The Scarlet Paragraph re-write~~

submit ghost story by 11:59 pm
tonight
hard copy → turn it in next class.

Homework:

Complete your rewrite of the SI paragraph; please have your paper typed!

Please complete a sketchnote on our five short stories (all on one page), plus 3 questions to present, for the Socratic seminar! See the next page for some ideas on creating the sketchnote....

How are they connected? Where do they overlap?

Socratic Seminar preparation:

All of Summer in a Day

Symbolism

The Monkey's Paw

The Most Dangerous Game

Irony

3 Questions

The Fly

The Scarlet Ibis

Make a Sketchnote

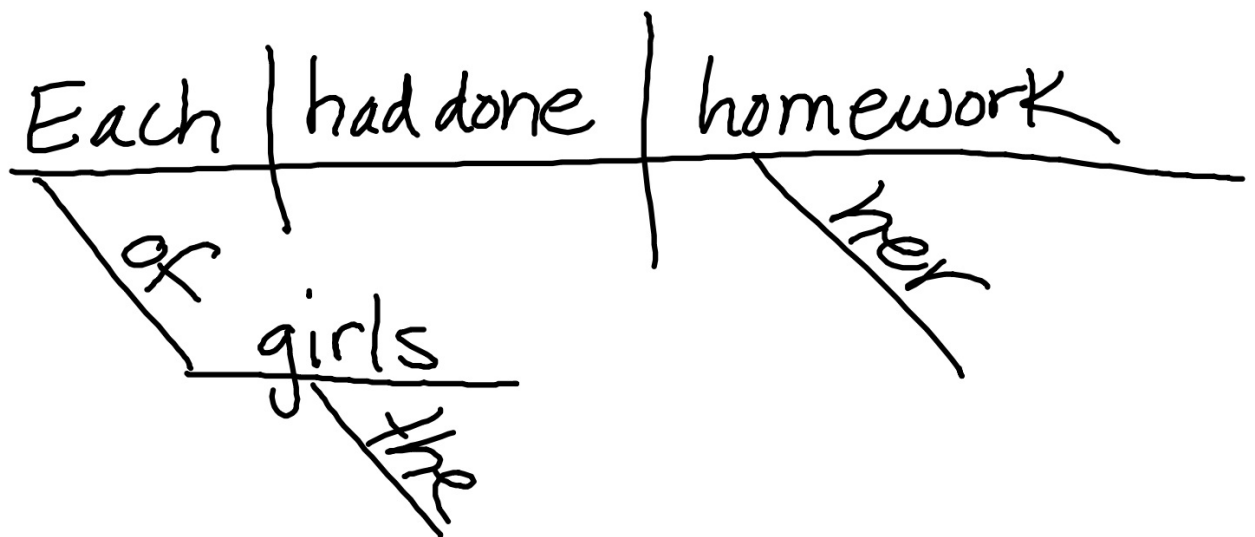

What is said and what is NOT said

Narrative Perspective

Theme

Emotion and lack of emotion

Each of the girls had done her homework

The Fly by K. Mansfield

boss likes power - power hungry

In small groups of 3, answer the following questions; each will want to take notes on the annotated story as they can be used on the test!

1. What is the boss' office like? In what ways are the boss' office and description of it important? character
2. What do you think is the relevance of the characters' names - or lack of names?
3. We are privy to the boss' inner thoughts regarding Mr. W. What purpose do these thoughts have in terms of the story? What do they reveal?
4. Why hasn't the boss gone to see his son's grave?
5. Why hasn't the boss cried like he'd intended?
6. Why does the boss rescue the fly, only to ultimately kill it?
7. What is the significance of the title? Why do you think it was called The Fly and not The Boss?
8. What is the meaning of the last line?
9. What does the fly symbolize?

What is Mr. W.'s purpose?

boss' lack of control

Contest Submission info:

Make sure your story has the following information:

Name (first and last)

Briar Woods High School

Freshman

Next, open your story in Word and choose File, Save As Choose to Save As File Type ".pdf" from the drop-down menu
(remember where you saved it!)

Then, open up your email and start to write an email

In the TO spot, write CONTESTS@SAUGUS.NET

In the CC spot, write CMAI@LCPS.ORG

In the SUBJECT line, write GHOST STORY CONTEST

ATTACH your file (the "pdf" file)

SEND