Connecting Independent Research to Your Big Question

My big question is:

I found this (circle one): photo, painting, song lyrics, essay, video, news article, other _____ about my question.

Documentation of source: title:

Publication/air date:

Date I found it:

author/artist:

publisher/sponsor:

source (website, news channel, database, etc.):

How does what I found connect to my question? Use the 5 W's and H from the work you read:

Who (subjects, characters, speaker, narrators, etc.)	What (topic)	Where/When (setting)	How (plot, structure, composition)	Why (theme)

So what? What does this help me understand about my question?
