

Scavenger Hunt

Mrs. Mai Honors English

Name/block _____

9th grade The Language of Literature (orange books)

You will need to read each question carefully, then dig through the book to find the correct answers.

1. Who is the publisher?
2. What are the strategies discussed for understanding Shakespeare's language?
3. Saki is a pseudonym for what British writer's name?
4. The Odyssey is considered what type of poetry?
5. Who translated our version of The Odyssey?
6. How many units are in the book?
7. "The Most Dangerous Game" is under what sub-heading title?
8. On which page can you find a poem by Nikki Giovanni?
9. Life Without Go-Go Boots is a: poem, short story, personal essay, or letter?
10. What are the six strategies for being an active reader?
11. In preparing to read the short story by Shirley Jackson, you are asked to connect to your life. How?
12. On what page can one find the Index of Fine Art?

13. An indefinite pronoun is defined as:

14. What are the four types of faulty reasoning, also called logical fallacies?

15. An epithet is:

16. What is the penultimate line spoken by Capulet in Romeo and Juliet?

17. What is a paradox?

18. In the poem "Oranges" by Gary Soto, during what month does the narrator hold his girl's hand?

19. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross was a country doctor in Switzerland. What event in her life made a deep impression on her at the age of 18?

20. The Communication Workshop discusses guidelines for the content of a persuasive speech. List four things to remember:

21. Book One of The Odyssey begins with an invocation. What is an invocation?

22. On page 883, literature connections are made with an author we will be reading in class. The short story is called "The Veldt." Who is the author?

23. What is the background setting for "The Scarlet Ibis"?