

During the Socratic Seminar:

You should be taking notes! Participating directly or not, you should be writing down some of the interesting ideas/thesis statements that your peers make.

At the end of the seminar, I will ask you to reflect on what was discussed and the important ideas/themes/connections that were made!